

Online launch of the second edition of the Guidebook:

Country-led Evaluation to achieve the 2030 Agenda and the SDGs

Tuesday, 20 May 2025

9.00–10.30 A.M. EDT / 15.00–16.30 CEST

Hosted by EVALSDGs

<<< Register here >>>

Have we lost the battle against the time(s) in advancing the 2030 Agenda?
Can evaluation remain relevant in a changing global political landscape?
How can it still contribute in the last years towards the SDGs?

Join us for this webinar to explore how country-led evaluations are a powerful vehicle to drive progress towards the 2030 Agenda and strengthen good governance, accountability, and transparency in today's challenging global landscape.

Hear from experts Dr. Sven Harten, Dr. Bala Yusuf-Yunusa, and Dr. Gonzalo Hernandez Licona, along with co-authors of the newly updated Guidebook on Country-led Evaluation of the 2030 Agenda and the SDGs how evaluation can contribute to a more just, equitable, and sustainable world.

Speakers:

- Marie-Hélène Adrien – Co-chair, EVALSDGs (Welcome Remarks)
- Dr. Sven Harten – Deputy Director, DEval (Global context and implications for evaluation)
- Nea-Mari Heinonen – Director, Development Evaluation Unit, MFA Finland (Guidebook overview)
- Dr. Bala Yusuf-Yunusa – Head, Policy and Strategy Unit, OSSAP-SDGs Nigeria (Country perspective)
- Dr. Gonzalo Hernandez Licona – Director, Multidimensional Poverty Peer Network (Discussant)
- Ada Ocampo – President, IDEAS (Closing Remarks)
- Thomas Rossmüller – Evaluation Specialist, UNICEF (Moderator)

Download the Guidebook here.